English

Drawing Conclusion 2
Dear Learner,

Hello! How are you today? Are you set for a new lesson? Today we shall learn about how to draw or give conclusion. It is a very important skill to learn.

Directions: Encircle the letter of the correct sentence in each situation.

1. Cora wears her loose cotton dress. She has a glass of cold water on her left and a fan on her right hand. You can tell that _____________________.
   a. It is a windy day.
   b. It is stormy day.
   c. It is a sunny day.

2. As our car was turning at the corner of the street, we heard a loud hissing sound. Then, it felt like the car fell in a big hole. Father came out of the car to get the jack. You can tell that _____________________.
   a. We had a flat tire.
   b. We passed over a big stone.
   c. We had a broken mirror.
3. Mother mixed a cup of flour, three egg yolks and a cup of milk in a bowl. After mixing, she had the oven ready. you can tell that ________________.

a. Mother was going to wash clothes.
b. Mother was going to bake a cake.
c. Mother was going to cook rice.

4. Anthony nervously got his paper and pencil from his bag. It took him some time before he was able to finish his test. He hesitantly gave his paper to the teacher.

a. Anthony studied for the test.
b. Anthony was not ready for the test.
c. Anthony found the test too easy.

Are you done?

Are your answers same as these?

1. c
2. a
3. b
4. b

Well, don’t worry if you get low score.
I will help you understand.

Let’s Study This

Read the story. Then, answer some questions about it.

Tim and his parents are waiting for the plane to leave. They have been waiting for hours but the plane would not leave because of heavy rain. It has been raining all day and the weather bureau said that more rains are expected until tomorrow. In Manila, Tim’s brothers and sister are expecting their arrival that day.
How do you think Tim and his parents are feeling?
(They feel tired of waiting.)

Why do you think they are tired?

1. They have been waiting for ours but the plane would not leave.
2. It has been raining all day and the weather bureau said that more rains are expected until tomorrow.

Sentence 1 and 2 are called story clues. Story clues help us the reason why they are tired.

When do you think would the plane leave for Manila?

1. The plane will leave for Manila the next day.

Why?
Because the weather bureau said that more rains are expected until tomorrow.

What do you call the sentence above?
It is called story clues.

We need story clue to give conclusion. Conclusion is a statement that you can give after reading the story.

Can we give conclusion without knowing the story clues?
No, we can not give conclusion without knowing the clues.
Let’s Do It

Let’s try if you can give conclusion after reading the story below.

Mother wake Nilda up. Nilda did not wake up right away. She lifted her heavy body. Mother touched Nilda’s forehead. “You have to take a medicine,” Mother said.

Nilda was ready for school.
Nilda was sick.
Nilda was feeling well.

What’s your answer?

Nilda was sick.

What are the story clues?
1. She did not wake up right away.
2. Her body is heavy.

Let’s Do This Again

Read the story below. Then Circle the letter of the correct conclusion.

1. Dark clouds covered the city. Thunder roared and lightning struck. The wind blew and trees swayed with the wind. People rushed inside the building.

   a. It was time to sleep.
   b. It would soon be daytime.
   c. A storm was coming.

2. Dower, the clown, showed his head. The trained monkey wiggled its tail. People stood up, clapped and cheered. The little children shouted and excitedly waved their tiny banners.

   a. The storm was a success.
   b. The audience was very angry at the clown.
   c. The children wanted to go home.
3. Mary did not bring her umbrella. Heavy rain poured after a few minutes.
   a. She was happy.
   b. She got sick.
   c. She got well.

4. Rafael ran after his ball across the street. He didn’t look to his right and left. He failed to see a car coming.
   a. Rafael was bumped by the car.
   b. Rafael was able to cross the street safely.
   c. Rafael waited for the ball to just roll back to him.

5. James did not eat his sandwich during recess.
   a. James got hungry.
   b. James was happy.
   c. James was angry about it.

Let’s Think It Over

What is a conclusion?
What are story clues?

Remember This:

Conclusion is a statement that you can give based on what you read.
Story Clues are parts of a sentence that will help you give the conclusion

This time you are now ready to answer the final test.
Read the story. Then circle the letter of the correct conclusion.

1. Danny came to school late. He slept late last night because he watched his favorite television show.
   a. He should sleep early next time.
   b. He should watch another show.
   c. He should not go to school anymore.

2. Cynthia finished her homework early.
   a. She should review other lessons taken that day.
   b. She should watch television.
   c. She should go out and play.

3. There are several pieces of paper scattered on the floor.
   a. I will continue walking.
   b. I will pick up the pieces of paper and throw them in the trash can.
   c. I will kick the pieces of paper.

4. A boy is writing on the wall of the school.
   a. I will yell and throw him a stone.
   b. I will tell the teacher about this.
   c. I will leave them alone.

5. Donna is eating a banana. She is holding the banana peeling.
   a. She should throw it anywhere.
   b. She should place it in the garbage can.
   c. She should hide it under the choir.
Are you done?

Now check your score against the Check Yourself.

What’s your score?

Score:

Congratulations!

You have done a good job.
You deserve a ribbon for that.
Check Yourself

Let’s Do This Again

1. c
2. a
3. b
4. a
5. a

Test Yourself

1. a
2. a
3. b
4. b
5. b